PAX ROMANA TO GUARANTEE PEACE IN EUROPE

FRANCO-ITALIAN ALIGNMENT

BERLIN DEPRESSED BY IMPLICATIONS

LITTLE ENTENTE'S INTEREST

(SPECIAL TO "TELEGRAPH")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messenger Ordinance, 1934. Received, Sept. 8, 8.12 a.m.)

LONDON, SEPT. 7.

SOMEWHAT PREMATURE DISCLOSURE OF THE FRANCO-ITALIAN DIPLOMATIC AND POLITICAL RAPPROCHEMENT IS LIKELY, IT IS FELT, TO HASTEN THE CONCLUSION OF A WRITTEN PACT, AS NEITHER ROME NOR PARIS IS MAKING ANY FURTHER ATTEMPT TO DENY THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE TREND OF THEIR RECENT NEGOTIATIONS.

Signor Mussolini has completely reversed his policy of twelve months ago. He appears now to be as strongly against German re-armament as he was then in support of Berlin's claims.

Berlin messages show that public opinion there is deeply depressed by the Franco-Italian Pact. "This is Italy's second desertion of Germany in recent months," said one high official.

It is generally agreed that the Franco-Italian agreement alters the European outlook entirely and interest is now centred upon the attitude of the Little Entente States thereto, and particularly that of Yugoslavia, which has not been on the best of terms with Italy.

BELGRADE ATTITUDE.

A Belgrade correspondent says that the majority of leaders in Yugoslavia believe that France will furnish adequate safeguards for the interests of the Little Entente, but they bluntly intimate that Yugoslavia must be consulted about the details.

In Rome, further information regarding the proposals has leaked out.

ITALY'S PROMISES.

It is authoritatively learned that Signor Mussolini has given a pledge to France of Italy's abandonment of a Versailles treaty revisionist policy and of the enforcement of a "Pax Romana" against Germany.

It is indicated that the proposed combination of a million and a half bayonets and seven thousand aeroplanes will be able to guide European policy indefinitely under Pax Romana along the lines of "Peace With Justice."

This, of course, represents a complete reversal of Italy's past policies and there is no doubt that the change is the result of recent events in Germany.—United Press.

New Local Staff Officer

LT. COL. HARRISON FOR CHINA

London, Sept. 7. Lieut-Col. Harold Cecil Harrison, D.S.O., who has been in command of the 1st Battalion of the Green Howards since 1932, has been appointed General Staff Officer (First Grade) to the British Troops in China, effective in March next.

Colonel Harrison entered the Royal Marines in 1907 as a Second Lieutenant, and three years later became Lieutenant in the Royal Marines Artillery. He was Assistant Adjutant, R. M. Artillery, on the outbreak of the Great

HITLER PLEA

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messenger Ordinance, 1934. Received, September 8, 8.10 a.m.)

Nuremberg, Sept. 7.

The great twenty-acre Zeppelinfeld, surrounded by four hundred thousand people, was one solid mass of brown uniforms to-day on the occasion of a great rally by political leaders.

Thousands upon thousands of spectators were packed into the surrounding stands, while thousands more were unable to obtain admission.

Twenty-one thousand members of the Brown Shirt Army carrying flags formed up in front of the grandstand, from where Herr Hitler, who was warmly acclaimed, appealed to the Brown Shirts to endure and to continue the fight for the national ideal.—Reuter Special.

TYPHOON PERIL TO SHANGHAI

EXPECTED TO STRIKE TO-DAY

Shanghai, Sept. 8. A weather report issued by the Sincanai Observatory states that the typhoon was in the vicinity of Weichow last evening and it is expected to strike Shanghai this afternoon. Many steamers in the harbour have postponed sailings.—Central News.

War, and was seconded for service with South African contingents—first commanding a battery in German West Africa, and later the Transvaal Battery of South African Heavy Artillery in France.

Col. Harrison has also served on the General Staff in Singapore and at the War Office, was Instructor at the Quetta Staff College from 1930 to 1931, and was at the Imperial Defence College in 1932. He holds the Order of the Sacred Treasure of Japan, which was conferred on him in 1929.—Reuter.

PERRY GOES ON TO LAST EIGHT

Another Disdainfully Easy Victory

New York, Sept. 7. F. J. Perry virtually swept Febleman, George Lot's conqueror, off the court in the American tennis singles championship to-day to score another straight sets victory and qualify for the last eight. Perry displayed masterly form and little chance in conceding the opposition of depriving him of the title. Details of play will be found in the Sports Pages.

RUSSIA'S LEAGUE ENTRY

GUARD AGAINST SURPRISES

Geneva, Sept. 7.

A secret meeting of the Council of the League of Nations has been convened for to-morrow afternoon to discuss the question of procedure in regard to the Soviet's admission to the League.

It is reported that, according to present plans, the Powers favouring the admission of Russia will put their names on a list headed by the members of the Council.

When over two-thirds of the signatures have been obtained, a proposal for the admission of the Soviet will be made before the Council without the possibility of a disagreeable surprise.

M. Barthou, the French Foreign Minister, had a long interview with Colonel Beck, the Foreign Secretary of Poland, this afternoon.

POLAND'S ATTITUDE.

There is reason to believe that their meeting proceeded in an atmosphere that was not too cordial, but, despite the recent growing divergence of Franco-Polish relations, it is not believed that Poland will oppose the admission of Russia or the granting of Russia a permanent seat on the Council.

It is expected that Colonel Beck will suggest a revision of the regulations governing elections to the Council and will re-assert Poland's claim to a permanent seat, without, however, making it conditional on her agreeing to admit the right of the Soviet to a permanent seat.—Reuter.

NEW BELGIAN ENVOY IN NANKING

Paying Official Calls To-day

Nanking, Sept. 8.

Baron Emmanuel Janzen, Special Envoy of Belgium to China, Lady Janzen and their entourage arrived at Pukow last evening. They were accorded a warm welcome by a large group of Chinese officials, and drove to No. 31, Matal Street, which has been prepared as the Belgian Envoy's residence during his stay.

Baron Janzen is calling on Mr. Lin Sen, Chairman of the National Government, this morning and will subsequently call on Mr. Wang Ching-wai, President of the Executive Yuan.—Central News.

ALL UNIONS TO SUPPORT STRIKE

A.F.L. ORDERS IN AMERICA

MORAL AID AND FINANCIAL

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messenger Ordinance, 1934. Received, September 8, 8.17 a.m.)

Washington, Sept. 7.

All labour unions in the United States have been given instructions to support the great textile strike to the end.

This applies to all unions organised under the American Federation of Labour, but it does not mean that there will be any sympathy strikes.

Their support will take the form of moral and financial encouragement.

Instructions to this effect were issued to-day by Mr. William H. Green, the President of the American Federation of Labour, and he was at pains to stress that there was no prospect of a general sympathy strike, that he has merely ordered all national and international unions, numbering one hundred and eight, to support the textile industry strike by every other means.

TO THE END.

The effect of the order is almost certain to be an intensification of the tying-up of the textile industry, as many operatives unsettled in their minds about the conduct of the strike will undoubtedly be influenced by the A.F.L. "mobilisation order."

"The strike must be carried to a successful conclusion," declared Mr. Green to-day, adding that he believed the President's Mediation Board offered an opportunity for a fair and just settlement.

UNION CONFERENCE.

The heads of all unions in the United States have been requested to attend a meeting in Washington next week to discuss the situation arising out of the textile strike.

Mr. Green emphasised that his statement means that A.F.L. unions will give moral as well as financial support to the textile operatives and that there can be no possibility of the strike ending until the workers get definite concessions.—United Press.

FORMATION FLIGHT TO MELBOURNE

Air Force Flyingboats Begin Long Trip

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messenger Ordinance, 1934. Received, September 8, 8.03 a.m.)

London, Sept. 7. A 19,000-mile formation flight to Melbourne, where they will represent the Royal Air Force at the centenary celebrations, has been commenced by the No. 203 Flyingboat Squadron.

The squadron which consists of three large-type flying-boats, left Basra on Wednesday, and is expected to reach Karachi to-night.

To-morrow, the airman will begin the flight across India, landing upon lakes and rivers.

The difficulties of the flight are shown by the fact that there is only one Air Force base en route, namely, Singapore, which possesses flyingboat equipment.—Reuter Special.

SENSATIONAL "RACKET" ALLEGATIONS

ANOTHER CHIEF GIVES EVIDENCE

(Special to "Telegraph")

(By Telegraph. Copyright, Telegraphic Messenger Ordinance, 1934. Received, September 8, 8.17 a.m.)

Washington, Sept. 7.

Extraordinary allegations some of them too far-fetched to permit of belief or repetition, libellous of prominent personalities, were made to-day at the resumed investigations of the international arms racket by the Nye Committee.

Mr. Louis L. Driggs, the President of the Driggs Ordnance and Engineering Company of New York, made the statements in reference to a struggle between America and Britain for Poland's armament orders.

He said, however, that neither one of them had yet got the Polish order.

ADVERTISING BY CRUISER.

Members of the Nye Committee later produced evidence that the U.S. Navy Department had authorised the cruiser, U.S.S. Raleigh, to make a special trip to Turkey in March 1929 solely for the purpose of advertising Driggs' guns.

Other disclosures made during the questioning of Mr. Driggs were that the Vice-President of the Electric Boat Company, Mr. Joyner, obtained the passage through Congress of three Bills favourable to his company, and that Sir Basil Zaharoff was one of the largest stockholders in the Chase National Bank.—United Press.

WOMEN EMPLOYED!

Washington, Sept. 7. An allegation that a British armaments firm used women entertainers of "doubtful character" to promote the sale of arms in Turkey was made in a letter read to the Senate Committee of Enquiry into the munitions industry to-day.

The letter was written to Mr. Louis Driggs, president of the American company that specialises in rapid-fire guns, by his agent in Turkey.

After reading the letter, Mr. Driggs remarked that since then "Kemal Pasha has cleaned up graft in Turkey."

WAR DEPT'S INTEREST.

A letter written by Mr. Driggs to his agent in Poland was also read, declaring that the United States War Department had turned over to the Company secret plans concerning certain anti-aircraft guns, adding: "The Department is cooperating with us one hundred per cent."—Reuter.

MODERNISATION OF LONDON

COMPLETION OF BUSH HOUSE

London, Sept. 7.

One of the greatest operations in office building in England will be completed with the erection in Strand and Aldwych of the final section of Bush House, one of the most conspicuous features of modern London.

The Office of Works has proposed the use of the new building for housing the staff of one of the Government Departments. The erection will also mark the completion of the plans for the new office buildings in the Strand and Aldwych, which were begun in 1926 and are now being completed.

The finished new thoroughfare, Strand and Aldwych, which replaced the old Strand and Aldwych, were opened in 1933 and the depression has been averted.

OIL!

It's hard to be a seductive Salome if your nose is shiny, and excessive oiliness gives powder to cake on your face like a gloom of oil.

So, if you're troubled with an oily nose—here's a two-day beauty hint.

In the evening, steal a few moments before bedtime to remove every particle of makeup and imbedded dust and grease with Melling Cleansing Cream. Rub it instantly without massaging it, penetrates deep into the pores, dissolving them thoroughly. Follow this with an exhilarating facial bath of strident. This helps to counteract excess and reduces enlarged pores which usually accompany an oily skin.

In the morning refresh your face with Astringent and follow with Melling Cream which supplements strident in correcting an oily complexion, and also provides the powder base for a perfect make-up.

FILMLAND NEWS

U.S. to Copy British Board of Censors

PLANS FOR "SCARLET PIMPERNEL"

The United States film industry has decided to duplicate in detail the machinery of the British Board of Film Censors.

Mr. Joseph Breen, who has been a leading official of the Hays organization, has been appointed to a new post, which makes him the dictator of film production in Hollywood.

The authority to Mr. Breen gives him the power to forbid the production of any story he considers undesirable in the public interest, and to enforce good taste in the treatment of any delicate theme or passage in any story he may approve.

Producers in Hollywood hope that the decisions of Mr. Breen will very soon command as much respect with Local Authorities in the United States as the certificate of the British Board of Film Censors now commands in Britain.

Producers have contracted to pay a fine of $5,000 for every breach of the rules laid down by Mr. Breen.

ALMOST UNANIMOUS.

Mr. Reginald Berkeley, who has brought this news from Hollywood to London says:—"In Hollywood the appointment of Mr. Breen is regarded as the most momentous decision the American film industry has ever taken."

"It is a sincere attempt on the part of film producers to establish and maintain a general and uniform standard of responsibility towards the film public."

"The value of the seal to be awarded by Mr. Breen will make it impossible for any producer to resist this plan, which is already almost unanimously approved."

Mr. Louis B. Mayer, who is in control of production at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios at Hollywood, and who is now in London, said:—"Every producer will agree to this plan because it is designed to stabilise the film industry in public opinion."

"It is unfortunate that errors committed by some few producers in some few films are magnified to the dimensions of national sensations, with the result that the industry as a whole, is made to suffer."

"A standard of motion picture ethics will benefit the entire industry by earning and retaining public confidence."

REGENCY DAYS.

"The Scarlet Pimpernel," the new London film production, to take the floor under the direction of Roland Brown, though dealing primarily with the Scarlet Pimpernel's exploits during the French Revolution, will also show a great deal of Regency England. The Scarlet Pimpernel will be played by Leslie Howard, while Lady Blakeney will be played by Merle Oberon.

The English sequences will show a picture of England happy and opulent in an age of show, entertainment, gambling, and even dissipation. The film will show duels, Corinths, and bare-knuckle fights, though the famous cock-fighting matches of the period will not be shown. One scene will be that of the House of Commons of the time, and will depict something of the incessant verbal warfare between Burke and Pitt, with perhaps a portion of the famous speech made by Pitt on the death of Louis.

Another important part will be that of the Prince of Wales who became Regent. This will be played by Nigel Bruce, who has just returned from Hollywood. Other

Salmon Cutlets; A

North Country Recipe

Take one lb. tinned salmon, one teaspoonful breadcrumbs, 1/4 oz. margarine, one oz. flour, one table-spoonful vinegar, one gill milk, one egg, pepper, salt, and mustard to taste, a few pieces of uncooked macaroni.

Break up the salmon, mix it with all the other ingredients except the egg. Flour a board slightly, and form the mixture into neat shapes resembling lamb cutlets. Cover them with beaten egg coat with breadcrumbs, and fry carefully, so as to keep their shape, in boiling fat. Drain, arrange on a hot dish, and put a little piece of macaroni in the end of each. Decorate with sprigs of parsley.

To ensure the latter being very green, dip it for two or three seconds into boiling water. You will be surprised at the brilliant green colour. Parsley that is ever so faded will respond to this treatment.

big parts yet to be cast are those of Pitt, Burke, Chauvelin, Robespierre, Danton, Mrs. Siddons, Sheridan, and Romney.

The producer, Alexander Korda, is more interested in showing in "The Scarlet Pimpernel" something more of the unique position held by England at that time than a mere catalogue of the "Pimpernel's" exploits on French soil. He feels that the French Revolution has already been adequately exploited on the screen.

The settings of the film will be by Vincent Korda and the photography by Hal Rosson, one of Hollywood's ace cameramen.

MUSIC IN THE FILMS.

Few filmgoers realise the quantity and diversity of the work carried out by the studio musical departments and the importance of this work in the production of films.

It is claimed, for instance, that it is probable that, with the exception of the British Broadcasting Corporation, more musicians are employed during a year at the Gaumont British studios than at any other single organisation in Europe. During a busy week, 500 musicians are frequently called upon. The output of original compositions per week from the studios, it is stated is greater than that of all London's music-publishing houses added together.

The Gaumont-British music department is responsible for all introductory, descriptive, accompanying, and background music in both Gaumont-British and Gaumont-British and Gainsborough pictures. It composes,

HAIL OF MOLTEN METAL

Four Men Burned In Foundry Explosion

A charge of molten steel blew out of a steel converter at Messrs. Ryder Bros. foundry in Bark Street, Bolton, recently and four men, out of about 30 working in the moulding shop, were burned.

Scrap and pig-iron are brought up to white heat in the steel converter, and when the explosion occurred the metal was at a temperature of 3,200 degrees Fahrenheit.

Mr. N. Ryder, an eye-witness, told a reporter that when the explosion occurred there was a hail of molten metal all over the moulding shop. The injured men were waiting to supply further metal to a cupola about six feet from the crucible. When the top of the crucible blew off there was a spout of metal, which shot up into the air and spread in all directions. The electric motor of the main crane which runs under the roof and was 22 feet above the converter was set on fire.

The men who escaped burning ran to help their comrades, and poured oil on the burns. Two of the men are detained in Bolton Royal Infirmary.

The workmen were able to put out the fire with sand.

FROZE WIFE'S LOVER

TRAPPED IN SHOP REFRIGERATOR.

Returning to his shop unexpectedly, a Barcelona butcher found his wife in an unusually nervous state.

When he suggested taking her to a cinema she pleaded a headache but he insisted on her accompanying him.

As they were about to leave the shop the butcher, noticing the refrigerator open, slammed the door.

Next morning when he opened the refrigerator out fell a frozen corpse. It proved to be that of his wife's lover, says the New's Chronicle Barcelona correspondent.

scores, and records the incidental music for the news-reels and magazine features under Gaumont-British control. The department includes specialists in the composition, scoring, and reproduction of every type of music; dance bands; string orchestras, brass bands, wind ensembles, and symphony orchestras are all available, as well as a vocal chorus.

GRETA GARBO NEXT?

The probability that Greta Garbo may go to London to star in a new film is mentioned by newspapers in Stockholm.

Mr. Thoresen, an architect who has been mentioned in connection with the building of the famous film star's new home to be erected on the large estate near Stockholm which she purchased in September last, is stated to have left Stockholm on Thursday for London.

His visit, it is surmised, is probably in connection with negotiations concerning the new film which, it is stated, is to be made in London.

"JUST GOOD FRIENDS."

"There's nothing in it. We're just good friends."

This was the reply by Jean Harlow and William Powell when asked whether they were preparing to get married (says Ketter from Los Angeles, California).

The two film stars have been spending a lot of time in each other's company lately, playing golf and swimming, hence the rumours of their impending engagement.

TRAINING OF CHILDREN

FOOLISHNESS OF DECEPTION

By Olive Roberts Barton

"Daddy, can I have a pony?"
"Sure."
"Honest, Daddy?"
"Didn't I say 'yes'?"
"You're just joking."
"No, I'm not. Am I, Mother?"
"Yes, you are, Tom. I think it's a shame to tease the boy the way you do."
"Well, the kid knows I haven't enough money to buy a new pair of shoes. Where would I get money for a pony? Anyway, children don't have ponies nowadays."
"They do, too," insisted Jack. "I know two boys with ponies. I had a ride on one yesterday."

A Puzzled Son

"All right. They're for rich kids."
"Did you ever have a pony?"
"Well, he wasn't mine but I rode him. He belonged to my granddad's farm."
"I wish I had a granddad on a farm."
"I'll get you one."

Jack looked puzzled. He thought his father had gone crazy. "Tom, why can't you talk sense? Jack can't open his mouth without you saying something silly. You seem to think he has no brains, but it's you."

After a while Jack said, "It must be fun to ride in an aeroplane. I wish I could go in one. Some time can we go, Dad?"
"Sure. Get your hat."
Jack looked at him quizzically and didn't move.
"I said, 'Get your hat.'"
Mother and son started. This was going just a bit too far. Then Jack turned and went out. His father gazed after him with narrowed eyes. Then he got up and put on his own hat and left the house.

At dusk he came in.
"Where were you, Tom? I've been waiting supper for an hour."
"I went for an aeroplane ride with Smith. He's been promising me a run for a long time."
"You don't mean that you went and left Jack at home?"
"Sure. I told him to come and he didn't believe me."
Jack looked as though the world had come to an end.

Cruel Treatment

"I'm just as glad," sighed his mother. "Only Smith is a good pilot and I think it's perfectly safe. But, Tom, the boy doesn't know when to believe you and when not to. You treat him as though he hadn't any mind, or any right to decent answers."
"I knew you'd put the blame on me," said Thomas, the bully.
"Well, it's no wonder Jack has no use for me when you're always taking his part."
Saying which, he virtuously attacked his dinner. But Jack couldn't eat a bite.

This story is not exaggerated, but based on truth. There is just such a father here and there with a streak of cruelty in him. He gets a kick in putting the children on the defensive and in disappointing them. Fortunately his number is limited.

CORDITE FACTORY DEATH

BEAD OF NITRO-GLYCERINE EXPLODES.

One man was killed and another injured when a slight explosion occurred at the Royal Naval Cordite Factory at Holton Heath, near Wareham (Dorset), recently.

The dead man was J. H. Mitchell, of Lytchett Minster, and the man injured Frederick Barnes, of Lytchett Matravers, who received slight abrasions.

The men were cutting a lead pipe which had been used in one of

MR. KING VIDOR IN ENGLAND.

HOLLYWOOD HAS LOT TO LEARN.

Mr. King Vidor, the American film director, arrived recently on his first visit to England.

"I have come to learn," he stated. "England is the background of literature, culture, and good taste. You are making fine films without infringing the dictates of decency and modesty. I want to make English pictures. I have done so in Hollywood but the atmosphere is missing, so I have come over to study English conditions and characteristics. I am going to select suitable English stories, and then make films of them in England."

"We in Hollywood can learn a lot from England." We are now in the throes of a campaign for cleaner films. The Churches are rightly complaining about the over-emphasis on sex and gangsters. The campaign should be beneficial, for producers will have to make better films. You in England film stories, not stars, and you make successful pictures. I want to know how."

the processes of the manufacture of nitro-glycerine. Captain Hammond, superintendent of the factory, said there was apparently a bead of nitro-glycerine left in the pipe and this exploded. Mitchell was so severely injured that he died soon afterwards. Barnes, who was assisting him, received only bruises. No buildings were damaged.

A bead of nitro-glycerine is about double the size of a pinhead.

Scientific PROTECTION that is True Economy

Squibb's Dental Cream is the most economical dentifrice you can buy. Not only because it is priced within the reach of all (three sizes), but because it does far more than CLEAN teeth well. It protects teeth and gums. Germ Acid attacks at the Danger Line—where teeth and gums meet—bringing on tooth decay and gum irritations. When you brush with Squibb's you force into the tiny crevices countless antacid particles which neutralize Germ Acid. Use Squibb's Dental Cream with absolute confidence—it is guaranteed by a house whose name has meant purity and efficacy for over 75 years.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 8, 1934.

THE WRONG SYSTEM

News which we were able to publish yesterday from an exclusive source indicates the possibility of developments in Europe which may shatter all likelihood of the cause of peace being served by the only methods which give any promise of success. Said to have been brought more closely together as the result of happenings in Germany and Austria, France and Italy are credited with the intention of evolving an agreement implying political collaboration and consultation and the maintenance of a level of armed forces united in resisting any rearmament by Germany. The Little Entente may be brought within the understanding, with the result that there would be an aggregate of a million and a half armed forces, whose business it will be to dictate the peace of Continental Europe. Expressed in other words, the movement represents the abandonment of any scheme of mutual guarantees for the preservation of peace, a direct blow to the conclusion of a Disarmament Convention, and a reversion to the old system of military alliances. Such a turn in events cannot but be viewed with the utmost misgiving. This so-called realistic policy is no doubt the outcome of the failure of the proposed Eastern Locarno plan, which, if it had been agreed to, would without question have been most helpful in composing the European situation and would have formed the best ground for the resumption of disarmament negotiations. Germany and Poland, however, have shown no enthusiasm for the suggested pact, and this circumstance, coupled with recent developments in Germany and Austria, clearly explains the drawing together of France and Italy in a determination to seek the preservation of the status quo by a display of force. Whatever the actual factors may be, it is a sorry circumstance that statesmanship should have become so bankrupt of ideas as to be able to envisage no better method of preserving peace than that of seeking to impose it by a show of armed force. There can be no lasting peace in Europe, if the States as a whole do not agree in the first place to keep the peace, and, what is more, to make common cause as far as may be necessary against aggressors. This is the only sound method of coping with the situation. New alliances, based on the idea of isolating any one nation or group of nations, can only lead to trouble in the long run.

NOTES OF THE DAY

AIR RE-FUELLING

Sir Alan Cobham returns to the sphere of aerial pioneering with one of the most spectacular projects of his brilliant career. Accompanied by Squadron Leader Helmore, he will attempt to fly from Portsmouth to Karachi nonstop, making use of the air-refuelling system to bring the attempt within the realm of practicability. All going well, he should be in Karachi within forty-eight hours, a feat the value of which can scarcely be missed. Air-refuelling has never previously been given a really practical test. There have been plenty of stunts in the United States, the so-called endurance flights, but the range has been that of a very small circle and it is perhaps remarkable that the pilots have not made themselves giddy with the boredom and monotony of their meanderings. Sir Alan will apply a severe practical test. If it comes off, long-distance commercial flying may be revolutionised.

WAYS THAT ARE DARK

For ways that are dark, private armaments makers have quite as much claim to distinction as Brotherton's "Heavenly Chimes." This has been already revealed as the result of the questioning of only one witness, albeit an important one, at the Nye Committee investigation and Miss Dorothy Detzer, of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, did not over-estimate the job of protecting world peace from the profit greed of arms vendors when she told the Institute of International Relations that a whole series of checks and controls would be necessary to curb munitions makers. The history of the munitions trade abounds shockingly with incidents that illustrate in an exceedingly dubious light the fine art of armament salesmanship. Connection of some of the world's most respected names with the manufacture and sale of death-dealing machines has never guaranteed that the business would be carried on with honest regard for the general or even national welfare.

SCARE-MONGERING

The concocting of false war scares and the deceptive exploitation of patriotism through a corrupt press, financing of politicians who might make trouble between countries, bribery of public officials, and wilful wrecking of disarmament conferences are a few of the business methods recorded against the arms industry. Where law or aroused public opinion has threatened to stand in the way of profitable shipments to foreign countries, poison gas has been labelled as "exterminator for the protection of plants" and munitions have been created and marked as "pianos." The peoples of all countries need to be fully aware of the sort of business which they have admitted into unofficial partnership with their governments.

GOVERNMENT'S PART

They need too, to realise that this partnership exists chiefly because governments are not yet willing to forgo war as an instrument of international policy. As soon as such a condition exists it will take all the controls—national licensing, embargo laws, international supervision—for which public opinion is calling, to keep the operations of arms hawkers within the limits of public interest. If peoples would make themselves secure from the avarice of armaments magnates, they must persist in their demand for checks upon the private and uncontrolled armaments trade. They must organise their demand for peaceable national policies which will make possible a divorce of government from the influence of munitions makers. And they must realise and act on the fact that their "eternal vigilance" will be the price of their peace as it is of their liberty.

ANIMAL AND MAN

The way some people can worry about the suffering of animals and be quite unmoved by the suffering of humans is a strange social phenomenon. In New Jersey recently there was a jobless house-painter, who was destitute. For two days neither he nor his wife had had anything to eat, and his wife was sick. It also happened that three homeless kittens, equally starved, had attached themselves to his house at that time. Their hungry yowling was more than he could stand, so he put them in a sack and took them to the Town Hall, asking that they be disposed of. But the town would not do it unless he paid a $3 fee, which he lacked, so he took them out into some woods and turned them loose. An inspector of a humanitarian society, who had followed him all the way, promptly caused his arrest for cruelty to animals. Luckily, the judge before whom he was arraigned was a man of sense. He immediately dismissed the case and referred the man to the relief officer. But what of the mentality which caused the man's arrest? And it might be remembered that it is not confined to people in New Jersey.

MR. PEPYS IN HONGKONG

Aug. 31st.—Up betimes and as I do on my garments, I do scan the news sheets, and to find that there is sad trouble in the Salvation Army as to whether poke-bonnets are the road to Heaven and silk stockings and cinemas that to Gehenna or no. But that matters of vestments should disturb the harmony of an Institution that doth so much good among the poor, is indeed a sad thing, though it is but a commonplace in the history of the Church. I see that certain foreigners have been expelled from Germany, who, it is clear, resents any but favourable criticism. But of the good sense of this I leave others to judge. After ordering my papers, I dine very pleasantly at the Clubbe, and later to a preview of a talk made in Hindustani by Indian actors. And of its kind I do hold it to be not so ill, as a native story is ever longwinded. But Lord! sixteen reels is too much for an European audience, nor, as I believe it is intended to be shown save to the Indian Community.

1st September.—Up very betimes and at once to my office, I being minded to leave there early. But Lord! As ever doth happen in like case, I am so thronged with business and leave not until after one of the clock, which upon a Saturday is as naughty a pass as ever I came to suffer. Ate my nunchoon at the Clubbe and after to play at Bowles at a pleasant valley which is, or was, the outfall of a stream down a mountain ravine, but so cunningly banked and levelled that at the top there is a pool in which one may swim, and beneath a bowling green, while yet lower is a space for tennis and oke a patch for practising at Cricket, which to my sorrow I do find to be pretermitted for lack of a ground upon which matches may be played. And between all and the Clubbe house there runs a trained nullah, wherein the flow of water sounds ever like heavy rain, and so doth supply an argument, an' it be needed, for those who would fain not go home too early. We did lose the bowls match but my rink did win. And so I fear ends my playing at Bowles for this year, Cricket being again started. But indeed but for the wet season, all had now been over. I did drink a glass or two of strong waters after the game to prophylact me against fever from the insects which owing to the water, were there a plenty, and so home to bath and change my garments, and then up to the Peak to see where I eat as tasty a savoury omelette as has passed my lips these many days. After I fall to reading the original Times news sheet of October, 1805, wherein is announced the result of Trafalgar and the death of Nelson. And this I do find interesting beyond all compare, and, as I suppose, of no small value. Home and to bed by midnight, as tired as ever I do be in my life.

2nd. (Lord's Day).—Save for an hour or so when I do break my fast, I do confess I sleep steadily until four of the clock, pretermittling my nunchoon, and after, busy in my chamber, both before and after my dinner, I see from the news sheets that Mr. T. Sopwith offers to meet both American yachts, and is of so sporting a temper, the Yankees know not what to make of him.

3rd.—This day being a public holiday I was minded to lie late, but I do presently recall that I have urgent business at my office and so hastily by motor hackney thither, and find it mighty well that I have come, for Lord! such a throng of business I never did see. Very hard at work, and after, to a preview of a picture, and so I have but a few minutes to eat a piece of cold beef, and drink a flaggon of ale, before I must to the cricket ground where I notch for the trial match. But Lord! to see how some of the strikers do run between the wickets like unto wash-amahs doth nigh make me sick. But beyond this I find the play pretty well, and better than I had hoped. After the match, much pleasant talk in the Cricket Clubbe, and now that the game hath started again I do feel five years younger. Yet there be those in that Club that do look ten years younger, and how much lighter it is not fitting I should set down even in this secret Diary.

4th.—Busy at the office all day and after to a preview of pictures, and there I do laugh myself high sick at a piece called "Springtime for Henry", which to my mind is the most delightful picture I have seen since "Rookery Nook" and the others of Mr. T. Wallis and H. Lynn. And indeed I am no fan of pictures, which as a rule do prove to be somewhat of a cervical hurt to me, but I do make an exception of this one. Home, and at work in my Chamber and so to bed.

5th.—A hot night and for the first time these three years in Hongkong I do put down my musketeer net. Very jaded this day which is mighty hot, the temperature being well over ninety degrees. Later, after the Sun is down, to the Cricket Clubbe where I do find many at practice, and it doth cheer my heart to see the game back again. It seems clear that there is no lack of bowling, but alas! most of it is bad. And I do look forward to Saturday, tho' if it be as hot, I know not how they shall play. And it is my counsel that all do wear sun-hats, save indeed those whose osseous cover doth extend from the lower jaw and above.

6th.—Again very hot, due I doubt not to the typhoons which seem to be north of the Colony. Julia again seems busy and I doubt not will leave us before long, her trials being completed. And I am sorry for it, yet I do trust that she may revisit us at Christmas. This evening I do watch the nets from my verandah and I do marvel at the energy of the players. And I trust we shall have a good side. Very busy writing until mid-night—and so to bed.

"All you do is sit up here and write postcards. I thought we came here to see something of the town."

BULLS AND INNERS

From the Office Butts

Hongkong may have lost the interport lawn bowls this week, but another little international Rugby player has been born.

It may still be hot, but the trek of school teachers back from Japan may be taken as a sign of an early winter.

A reader thinks there is too much swank at most of the Colony's bathing beaches. So it seems we must go to the seaside to see side.

Modern girls have no use for "bad eggs." Strangely enough, because they are inclined to be too fresh.

The modern counterpart of All Baba appears to be All-Money.

A bull recently invaded a village cricket pitch at Homo. Maybe he only wanted to win the toss.

The worst thing about pistol politics is that they are apt to grow automatically.

Lions, we read, seldom live more than twenty years in captivity. That must be their cage-limit.

A London tailor has produced a suit with no pockets. This should at last ensure the wife a reasonable chance of her husband posting her letters.

A local angler had his day's sport spoilt by mosquitoes. He got more bites than fish.

Duck's liver is being advocated as a cure for fever. Seems like a quack remedy.

We hear of a local Aberdonian who isn't given to drink unless the drink is given to him.

An advertisement states that there are openings for ladies' hairdressers on—ocean liners—A life on the permanent wave.

"Anglers' Romance," reads a heading. Yes, they usually do.

Girls who wish to preserve their figures are advised to avoid too much confectionery. In other words, they can't eat their cake and have "it."

According to a writer, bald men are not usually talkative. Domes of silence!

Whisky was recently found smuggled in margarine boxes in Shanghai. Butter-Scotch?

Imitation marble is now being made from concrete. Our house-boy knows the trick, only he uses a handful of self-raising flour and a few currants.

It is stated that the making of summer drinks has now become something of a science. Fizzy-ology.

Imitation silk stockings are now being painted on feminine legs. In a shower of rain it must be interesting to see which runs first—the woman or the stockings.

"Fishermen who bet on their catch." Place-money.

"Bargains in Furniture." Suits and low?

Nowadays they tell us that it is the forward girl who insists on looking backwards.

Mountaincoering, says a traveller, is very hungry work. It often leads to great gorges.

AMAZING BIRD STUDIES
TAKEN ON THE HAND
OF THE PHOTOGRAPHER with a
ROLLEIFLEX

The above photograph was taken in the Glen, Dunfermline, Scotland, where the wild birds are extraordinarily tame. The bird was actually on the hand of the photographer, who had the camera slung round his neck, using Rolleiflex Praxar Lens. Exposure 1/100th sec. at f/8.0.

We know of no other camera which could achieve such remarkable results. The Rolleiflex is, indeed, a clever combination of remarkable features which go to make a camera absolutely ideal for getting remarkable results, as well as ordinary subjects.

FULLER PARTICULARS

Frocks for LATE SUMMER and EARLY FALL

COSTUMES COURTESY
STEIN and BLAINE
NEW YORK

AT LEFT, above, is an evening gown of dark blue triple sheer with a bodice embroidered with shiny blue beads, and a long-sleeved, beaded jacket with navy blue fox collar.

THIS SHEATHLIKE evening gown in lustrous white satin has a low decolletage and is trimmed with a rhinestone star on the left shoulder.

THIS BLACK crepe evening gown with angel skin top that is trimmed with rows of fringe is perfect for late fall evenings as well as for right now.

THIS EVENING GOWN in shell pink crepe is worn with a pink moire jacket that has a fox collar in matching color.

GRAY CREPE fashions this low-necked evening gown and matching jacket with cape sleeves and a seal collar. A cluster of fuchsia flowers is fastened at the point of the neckline in front.

Lower necklines and shorter trains are featured in the charming new evening gowns for end-of-the-season wear

LOWER necklines, shorter trains and elaborate details distinguish the late summer evening dresses that can be worn right on through the early autumn months, too. These new creations are flattering to all types of women and they have a certain elegant air about them that is sure to please the fussiest shopper.

In the first place, the low necklines are much more becoming to the average girl (unless she's under 19) than those high ones that covered up our throats last season. Anyone with a beautiful neck and chest should be proud to show them, and the woman with a not-so-beautiful throat should be quite willing to take a chance on a low decolletage in hopes that white skin against lustrous crepe or shimmering satin will make a more attractive picture.

The majority of the necklines are wide V shapes in front, and very low, rather slender V's in the back. Shoulder straps are narrower and there is a definite trend toward no shoulder straps at all.

Trains have decreased in size and length. You may see fabric trailing along on the floor behind a dancer, but when you look closely, you'll discover that it is merely a very long skirt that drags, and not a train.

By the end of the fall season, you'll see no trains at all, and it's possible that you'll see split skirts. That means, of course, that the evening silhouette is getting slimmer and slimmer and that it won't be long until billowing fullness below knees will be merely a matter of fashion history.

Evening gowns cut on princess lines, with the bodice and skirt in one, are newer than those with belt lines. Topped by narrow shoulder straps and with the skirt fullness artfully concealed, the effect is to accentuate slenderness and height.

Whispered hints of what the great designers are planning for their coming openings indicate that the Spanish influence is to be important. A few advance models of definite Castilian design are to be seen already. They are cut-princess fashion but there is a slight flare at the skirt hem.

One that transforms the wearer into a dashing senorita is made of grey crepe with the hemline curving up in the centre front to show cherry chiffon ruffles. Over the low-cut princess frock is worn a tiny bolero of silk fringe in cherry colour.

Rich Spanish colourings that are favoured are Goya red with ivory; burgundy, deep carnation and black; chocolate, tobacco brown and almond green.

If you're definitely not the type to "go" Spanish you may be interested in the vogue of Empress Josephine gowns. Simply cut, with long, slender skirts and draped bodices, these are ideal for late summer.

Speaking of history, the Directoire influence is important in evening wraps to wear over the new gowns. Many are gored and others are fitted snugly about hips and waists. Of course, if you have a penchant for flowing wraps, look at the fitted models with kimono sleeves, or at the perfectly grand ones with dolman sleeves.

Luxurious fur trims the really glamorous evening capes, coats and jackets. Seal, mink and white fox, dyed to match the colour of either gown or wrap, are the most popular evening furs right this minute. Later, ermine and natural silver-black fox will be popular.

THE AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHER

NOTES AND QUERIES BY "EFTOO"

The talk by Mr. E. H. Higham could not take place as advertised, due to the fact of the Telegraph Competition entries, not being available for public exhibition until Monday, 10th. Inst. The speaker therefore dealt briefly with the evolution of art, and the aims and morals of the pictorialist.

The actual discussion of the entries will be held in the Morning Post Building on Thursday next at 6.30, and an opportunity will be given to those attending to put forward their ideas. This meeting is held under the auspices of the H.K. International Photographic Society.

All amateurs are invited to join the H.K.I.P.S., present and intending members can obtain information from the Hon. Secretary, Mr. S. B. Tan, whose address now is c/o. Asia Life Insurance Co., Queen's Road, Photographic queries can be sent to the above address. Replies to same will be published in this column the following week.

Nagy, D.A., and Mr. H. H. Higham, B. ARCH., F.R.I.B.A., who spent many hours in the work of adjudication, every entry being carefully scrutinised.

REMARKABLE STANDARD.

The Judges expressed themselves as being astonished not only at the large number of entries, but at the big percentage of prints of high quality. There were so many entries that could be classified as of prize-winning merit that the Judges found it no easy matter to allot the awards. For this reason, competitors who did not succeed in winning prizes should not be discouraged; whilst, on the other hand, the actual winners should realise that in some instances they only just managed to beat other competitors.

Satisfaction is voiced by the Judges over the fact that the remarks made last year in regard to technique and finish have been taken to heart, with the result that, generally speaking, the great improvement is registered in this direction. Moreover, in all the classes, the artistic sense of the competitors is shown to have been very high. In particular, portraits and figures were amazingly good.

YOUTHFUL TALENT.

Regarding the Children's Section, the Judges were agreeably surprised at the number of really clever pictures entered. Some of the entries showed most promising artistic talent, which is worthy of being encouraged.

In some instances, prizes were not awarded because of prints being entered in the wrong classes. The necessity of care on this point is stressed by the Judges.

SOME DEFECTS.

The Judges also wish to emphasise that competitors should send in only their best work. In some instances in this year's Competition defects were noticeable, due either to negligence in the care of the camera or to dirty lenses, particularly the latter.

Some enlargements, also, were obviously made from negatives which had melted during development, with the result that the defects were thrown into prominence. In other instances, there were badly faded or carelessly finished photographs sent in, such as should not be entered in competitions.

On the whole, the Judges found the entries remarkably good, both in subject matter and composition, and they express the view that, judging from the merit displayed, Hongkong can hold its own with any centre in the realm of amateur photography.

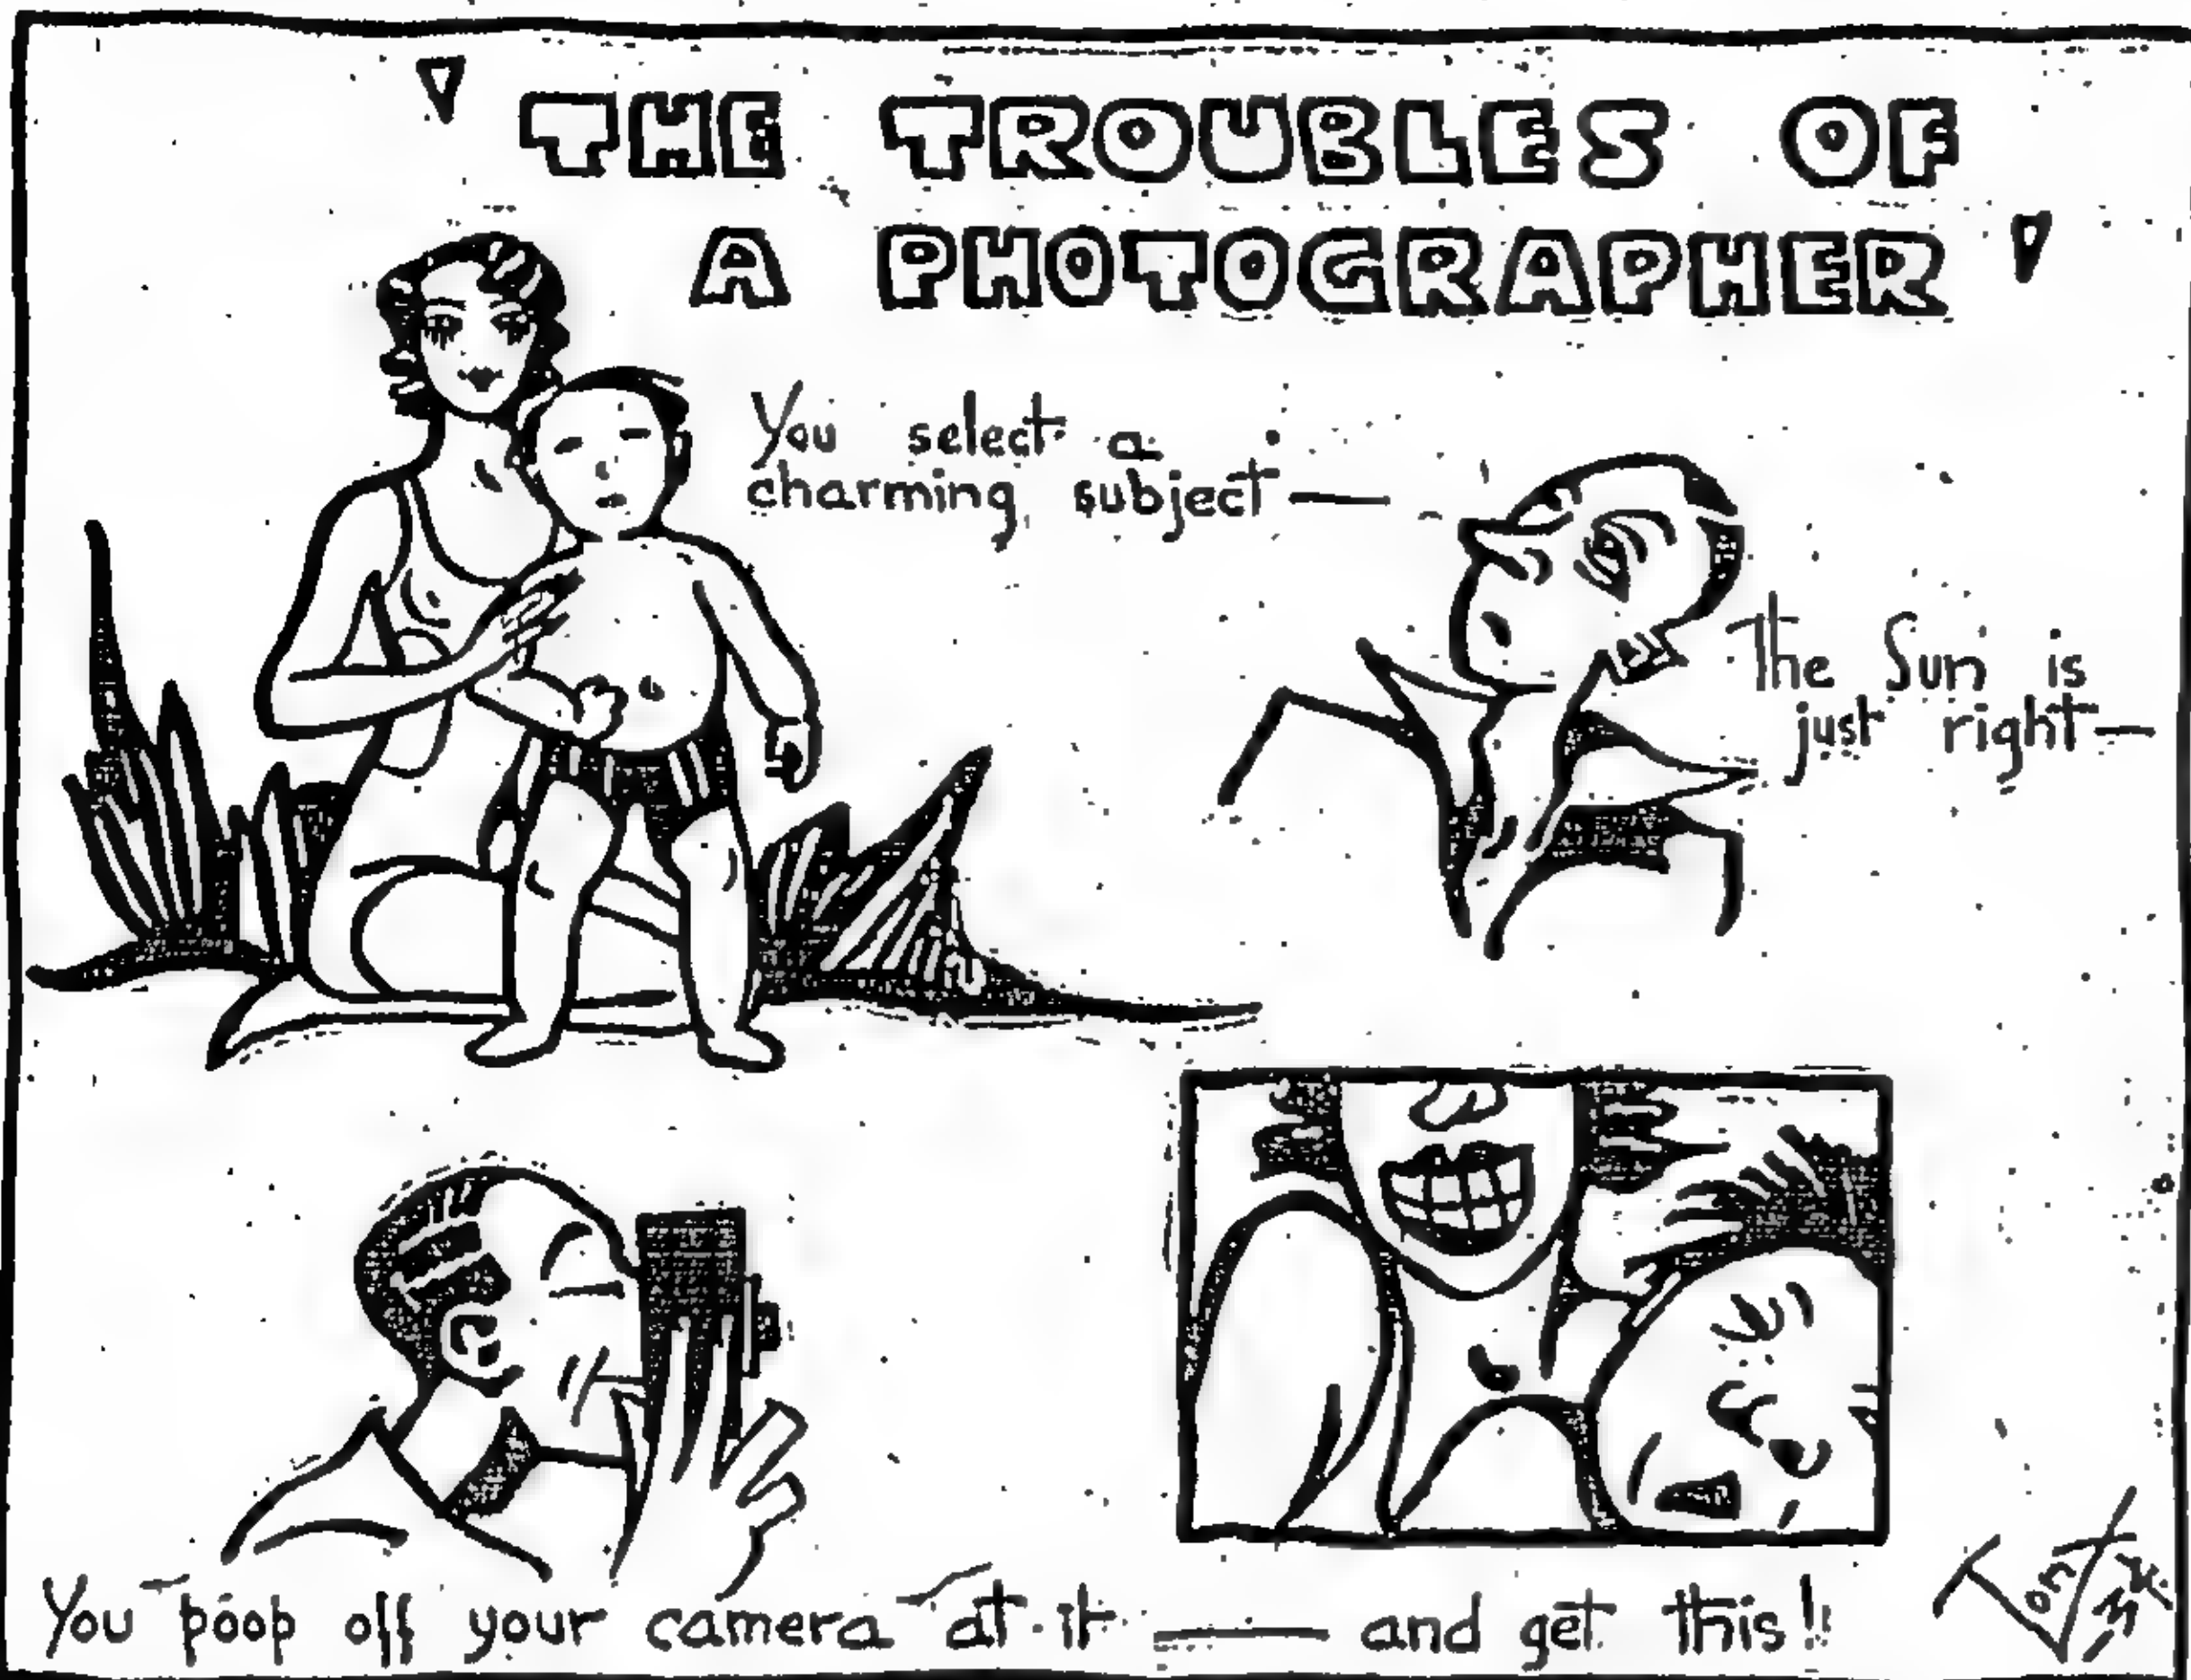

"LUSTRE RAYON."

DISPLAY OF MEN'S WEAR AT WHITEWAYS

"Britain still offers you value for money" is the slogan on show cards in a neatly dressed window display at Messrs. Whiteaway Laidlaw and Co., Ltd., where this well-known, progressive firm are displaying men's sports shirts and underwear made from the luxurious fabric known as "Lustre Rayon."

Being the pioneers of the Rayon industry, this industry must be regarded as one of England's foremost to-day.

Messrs. Whiteaway Laidlaw and Co., Ltd., are showing some beautiful pastel shades in sports shirts in practically all the popular colours, white, sky, lemon and grey, also two very popular shades in underwear, white and sky. These garments are very moderately priced and within the reach of all.

THE ENCHANTRESS FOR SALE

"BITTERN" TO TAKE HER NAME

London, Sept. 7. The Admiralty announces that it has been decided to pay off H.M.S. Enchantress and to place her on the sale list. She is over 30 years old, and considerable expenditure would be required to make her fit for further service.

His Majesty's sloop Bittern, now under construction at Clydebank, will be renamed the Enchantress, and on completion, in addition to performing her normal duties, will be made available for occasional use by the Board of Admiralty for inspections of naval ports and visits to the Fleet, as may be required.—British Wireless.

NULLAH TRIAL CONCLUDES

ACCUSED, SENTENCED TO DEATH

Sentence of death was passed by the Chief Justice, Mr. A.D.A. MacGregor, yesterday on Ng Loi-yuen, convicted of the murder of Michael Pine on June 22 last by throwing him in the Albany Nullah.

The jury took an hour and a half to consider their verdict, interrupting their deliberations for a short time while they returned to Court to ask His Honour for guidance as to the distinction between murder and manslaughter.

They finally returned a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy.

The trial lasted three days. At a previous trial the jury failed to agree.

The King's Exequatur empowering Mr. John Cochran Pool to act as Vice-Consul for the United States of America at Hongkong has received His Majesty's signature.

The many friends of the Hon. Mr. J. P. Bragg, who has been a patient of the Canossa Hospital for the past three weeks, will be glad to learn that he has so far recovered as to be able to leave the institution to-day.

"BEACH CLUB GIRL"

New Serial Starts On Monday

Complying with the expressed wish of Telegraph readers, we are resuming serial stories with our issue of Monday, 10th instant.

"Beach Club Girl" is the title of our new offering. Holiday romance, midsummer thrills, August adventure, sunshine, happiness and a glorious love story will all be found in this attractive tale.

It is the story of Boots Raeburn, a real heroine, gay, young, romantic. Three men are in love with her—and one nearly breaks her heart.

As refreshing as a salt water dip is this new serial by Mabel McElroy, author of those outstanding favourites, "Married Filits," "Daring Fool," "The Man Hunters."

Make a point of reading the first instalment on Monday, and then follow the development of this attractive offering day by day.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

MARKET ON DOWN GRADE

The following reports on the New York stock market have been received through Messrs. Swan, Culbertson & Fritz: The Wall Street Journal report on yesterday's markets: Stocks were moderately downward, featured by the weakness of silver and distiller issues. U.S. Smelting shares dropped six points, dragging silver shares along. The decline was due to continuation of disappointment regarding the Company's earnings. Bonds were unsettled, due to the unexpected decline in United States Government issues. Wheat prices were upward, due to heavy Eastern, Commission house and professional buying owing to rains in the Southern hemisphere being insufficient to aid the crops.

S. C. & F. New York office cables: The stock market was dull and moderately lower, closing at about bottom prices. The Textile Union refuses mediation, pending a complete shutdown. The walkout is slowly increasing and more allied lines threaten to strike. Washington indications continue to be anti-inflationary; other news is colourless. The American Tel. & Tel. Co. gained 10.750 telephone in August. The Russo-American debt negotiations have been dropped. Fred. and Charles Fisher have resigned from General Motors. Weekly Bank Clearings are 4.4 per cent. below that of the corresponding period of 1933. The American Smelting Corp. has reduced lead prices by five points to 3.70 cents per lb. The Ohio Bell Telephone Co., a subsidiary of the American Telephone Co., must refund subscribers $12,000,000 with interest. The Stock Exchange is investigating yesterday's decline in U.S. Smelting shares. Montgomery Ward's sales during August were up 23%, compared with August, 1933. Business done: 690,000.

New York & Chicago commodity reports received through Messrs. Swan, Culbertson & Fritz: Cotton: The Cofra Bureau estimates the crop at 9,035,000 bales, the nearest private estimates to the Government figures of last month. The market was quiet, pending the Government Bureau report tomorrow. The usual evening up of commitments was in evidence. Forecasting to mills amounted to 134,000 bales. We believe a considerable amount of buying is being done on Traders' willingness to await a settlement of the strike and on the possibility of benefit. In the meantime, the case is unexpected, not on the Government crop estimate, which will be issued on Saturday. Grain: The tendency was to take profits as the advance continues. The tightening of the cash wheat position caused the advance yesterday and the upward movement has not culminated. Rubber: The market was steady, but trading was very dull.

COUNTY CRICKET SLUMP

Most Clubs Report Very Severe Losses

SOME UNEXPECTED REVELATIONS

In spite of the exceptionally fine summer and the visit of the Australians to what public interest in cricket, it is a surprising fact that county cricket clubs, with one or two notable exceptions, have to report a considerable drop in income from county matches.

Against this loss there is, fortunately, a great increase in receipts when the Australians visit any county ground, while the enormous financial success of the Test matches means that each county will receive a cheque for more than £400 as its share of the surplus receipts.

Nevertheless, the decline in interest is disturbing. Only Worcestershire and Surrey have a completely satisfactory financial position to report. Yorkshire, the wealthiest of the counties, has suffered much from the absence of "star" players at Test matches, as also has Nottinghamshire.

But while Worcestershire report an overdraft of £2,000 wiped off, Leicestershire are afraid they may not be able to carry out next year's engagements. Here are the reports from the counties:

SURREY'S PROFIT.

The Surrey club enjoys its most important fixtures during the present month, so that adequate comparisons will not be possible until September. The financial position at the Oval is, however, very satisfactory, and returns up to date for the current season already show an improvement on last year's figures.

POOR ESSEX GATES.

The Essex club's finances, considering the fine weather, do not reach expectations. The match with the Australians at Chelmsford was a marked financial success, but attendance at county weeks at Chelmsford, Colchester, and Clacton fell far short of the estimated figures. At Clacton rain contributed to the poor gates.

The experiment of playing home matches in different Essex towns has increased membership.

HAMPSHIRE: AVERAGE.

Bournemouth's county cricket week, which is yet to be held, is an important factor in Hampshire's finances. The county championship gates at Southampton and Portsmouth have been about the average, but the visit of the Australians to Southampton set-up records both on the first and second days, the total takings being £1,928.

YORKSHIRE DOWN.

Yorkshire's gate receipts are less by a substantial amount than those of last season. "We had a surplus for last year of £1,394," an official of the club said. "We shall not do anything like so well this summer, but it is obvious that comparison would be unfair." "We cannot expect the same gates when Sutcliffe, Leyland, Verity, and Bowes are not playing."

LANCASHIRE UNLUCKY.

No detailed statement is available showing the financial position of Lancashire compared with last year, but gate receipts from home matches are down.

This is mainly because Lancashire has not been fortunate with the weather when playing at home. The Hampshire gate, owing to rain, produced only £30, while the Kent match yielded £130.

Another serious loss was met with on August Bank Holiday, when rain was so persistent that not a ball could be bowled in the match against Yorkshire.

LEICESTER: BAD.

Leicestershire has had a deplorably bad year and it is by no means certain that it will be able to carry out next season's engagements.

The Australian match was affected by bad weather and no county game has realised £200 in gate money. In the match with Warwickshire though the weather was fine the total takings were only £33.

Among the proposals under consideration for improving the club's position is a suggestion to amalgamate with Lincolnshire, who play in Minor Counties cricket. This would enable Leicestershire to play at Skegness and other Lincolnshire centres.

DERBY: £800 DOWN.

So far Derbyshire gates for championship matches are about £800 down on last year.

It is estimated that with the record gate from the fixture with the Australians, receipts for this year and last will nearly balance over the full season.

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE MISS 'STARS'.

Nottinghamshire's financial position has been strengthened by the Test match at Trent Bridge and by the increased membership which resulted. Receipts from county games are down on last year, but no figures are available.

The absence of such popular players as A. W. Carr and Sam Staples and the infrequency of Larwood's appearance have also been adverse factors.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE: 'LOW'.

Gates at Northamptonshire's matches have been extremely poor, and last season's aggregate of about £2,500 will not be reached.

Mid-week games with Yorkshire and Kent produced less than £100 between them, and takings for the mid-week game with Derbyshire were only £44.

WORCESTER £1,300 UP.

DOUBLE HEADER AGAINST DETROIT

'ANKES BEATEN AGAIN

New York, Sept. 7. Rain ruined the National League baseball programme to-day, only one match being played, when Chicago Cubs beat New York Giants.

In the American League, two double headers were completed, Philadelphia Athletics twice beating Detroit Tigers, and Washington Senators and St. Louis Browns ending all square.

The Yankees were again beaten by Chicago.

MENZEL, WOOD AND SHIELDS SURVIVE

NO NEW SURPRISES IN U.S. TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

TWO AMERICAN YOUNGSTERS IN A CLASSIC ENCOUNTER

V.G. KIRBY STILL INTERESTED

Forest Hills, Sept. 7. Fred Perry to-day showed his unconcern for champion beaters when he engaged E. W. Feibleman, conqueror of George Lott, beating him in the fourth round of the U.S. national singles tennis championship in straight sets with the loss of five games.

Perry's performance amply satisfied the spectators that the Englishman is going to be very difficult to dethrone this year, and he remains a very warm favourite for the retention of the title he so magnificently won last year.

So far Perry has survived four rounds without conceding a set. True, he has been favoured with a comparatively easy half, but his form has justified belief that when he comes up against sterner stuff he will be equally as effective.

As yet the Englishman has not been in the least bit extended and has therefore been in the position to adapt himself to conditions and to tune up his fine array of strokes.

TRUE TO FORM.

To-day everybody played true to form. In other words there were no surprises. Roderick Menzel, Lester Stoeft, Frank Shields, Sydney Wood, Clifford Sutter, and Wilmer Allison all found their way into the last eight. Not all of them had such comfortable passages as Perry. Menzel and Shields, for instance, were extended to the full and were made to win in five sets. Allison had a fierce four set duel with John McDiarmid.

Only one of the illustrious American collegiate players remains in the championship. Frank Parker was eliminated by G. B. Kirby, the South African, in the third round, but Donald Budge succeeded in advancing to the fourth round at the expense of Bryan ("Bisty") Grant, and he meets Kirby to-morrow (Saturday).

The clash between Budge and Grant was one of the most attractive of the day. These two had fought out the final of the national clay court championship only a few weeks ago, when Grant beat his young rival in three straight sets to win the title for the second time since 1930.

Grant very nearly repeated his performance. He trailed in the first set, but took the next two and made a stupendous effort to clinch the issue in the fourth. The set went to fourteen games, but Budge prevailed, and in the final stanza easily overcame his now exhausted opponent.

MENZEL EXTENDED.

Gregory Mangin put up a sterling display against Roderick Menzel, the Czechoslovakian dynamite who nearly swept Perry off the court at Wimbledon. Mangin made a great recovery after losing the first set, and broke through to capture the next two.

Menzel had to play at his best to level up in the fourteenth game of the fourth set, but received less opposition in the final set which he won after nine games.

Robert Bryan, the New York player made Frank Shields, America's No. 1 ranking player, look a second-rater in the early stages of their five set encounter.

Bryan, with nothing to lose and a great deal to win, went all out for shots from the opening service, and had Shields very uncomfortable for the better part of four sets.

Shields was made to work like fury to save the first set which extended to sixteen games, but Bryan returned as fresh as a daisy and annexed the second and third stages with the loss of three and two games respectively.

After this Shields had to exert himself and playing faultless tennis, he ran away with the fourth and fifth sets, both concluding at the eighth game.

MATCH OF 47 GAMES.

Wilmer Allison's advance at the expense of John McDiarmid was obtained only after a match of 47 games. McDiarmid won the initial set to three, lost the second to two, and then forced Allison to 18 games in the third set and another twelve in the second. It was high speed tennis featured by excellent all court play.

Marcel Rainville, Canadian Davis Cup player proved no match for Wood, who is obviously the most serious challenger to Perry. Wood won comfortably in straight sets and was scarcely extended in either.

The results, which were cabled by Reuter, follow.

FOURTH ROUND.

F. J. Perry (Britain) beat E. W. Feibleman (U.S.) 6-2, 6-1, 6-2.

R. Menzel (Czechoslovakia) beat G. Mangin (U.S.) 8-6, 4-6, 3-6, 8-6, 6-3.

L. Stoeft (U.S.) beat J. Van Ryn (U.S.) 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.

S. Wood (U.S.) beat M. Rainville (Canada) 6-1, 6-4, 6-4.

F. X. Shields (U.S.) beat Robert Bryan (U.S.) 9-7, 3-6, 2-6, 6-2, 6-2.

C. Sutter (U.S.) beat Berkeley Bell (U.S.) 6-3, 7-5, 6-4.

W. Allison (U.S.) beat J. McDiarmid (U.S.) 3-6, 6-2, 10-8, 7-5.

THIRD ROUND.

Donald Budge (U.S.) beat Bryan Grant (U.S.) 6-3, 3-6, 4-6, 8-6, 6-3.

(Budge meets Kirby of South Africa in fourth round today).

GENTLEMEN V. PLAYERS

CRICKET DRAWING TO A CLOSE

London, Sept. 7. Two representative cricket matches between the Gentlemen and Players were concluded to-day, the one at Scarborough being drawn, and at Folkestone the Gentlemen winning by three wickets.

The Players had the better of the match at Scarborough and nearly brought off a big win. Batting first the Players compiled 363 for 8 wickets, declared. W. Keeton, the Nottingham batsman, contributed 94. The Gentlemen replied with 205, and the Players again declared their innings closed at 65 for 6.

Requiring 224 to win, the Gentlemen made a bold effort to obtain the runs, and when stumps were drawn, were 21 runs short with one wicket to fall.

Verity bowled brilliantly in the Gentlemen's first innings, taking 6 for 57, while R. E. S. Wyatt helped himself to an innings of 99, being exceedingly unlucky to miss the century.

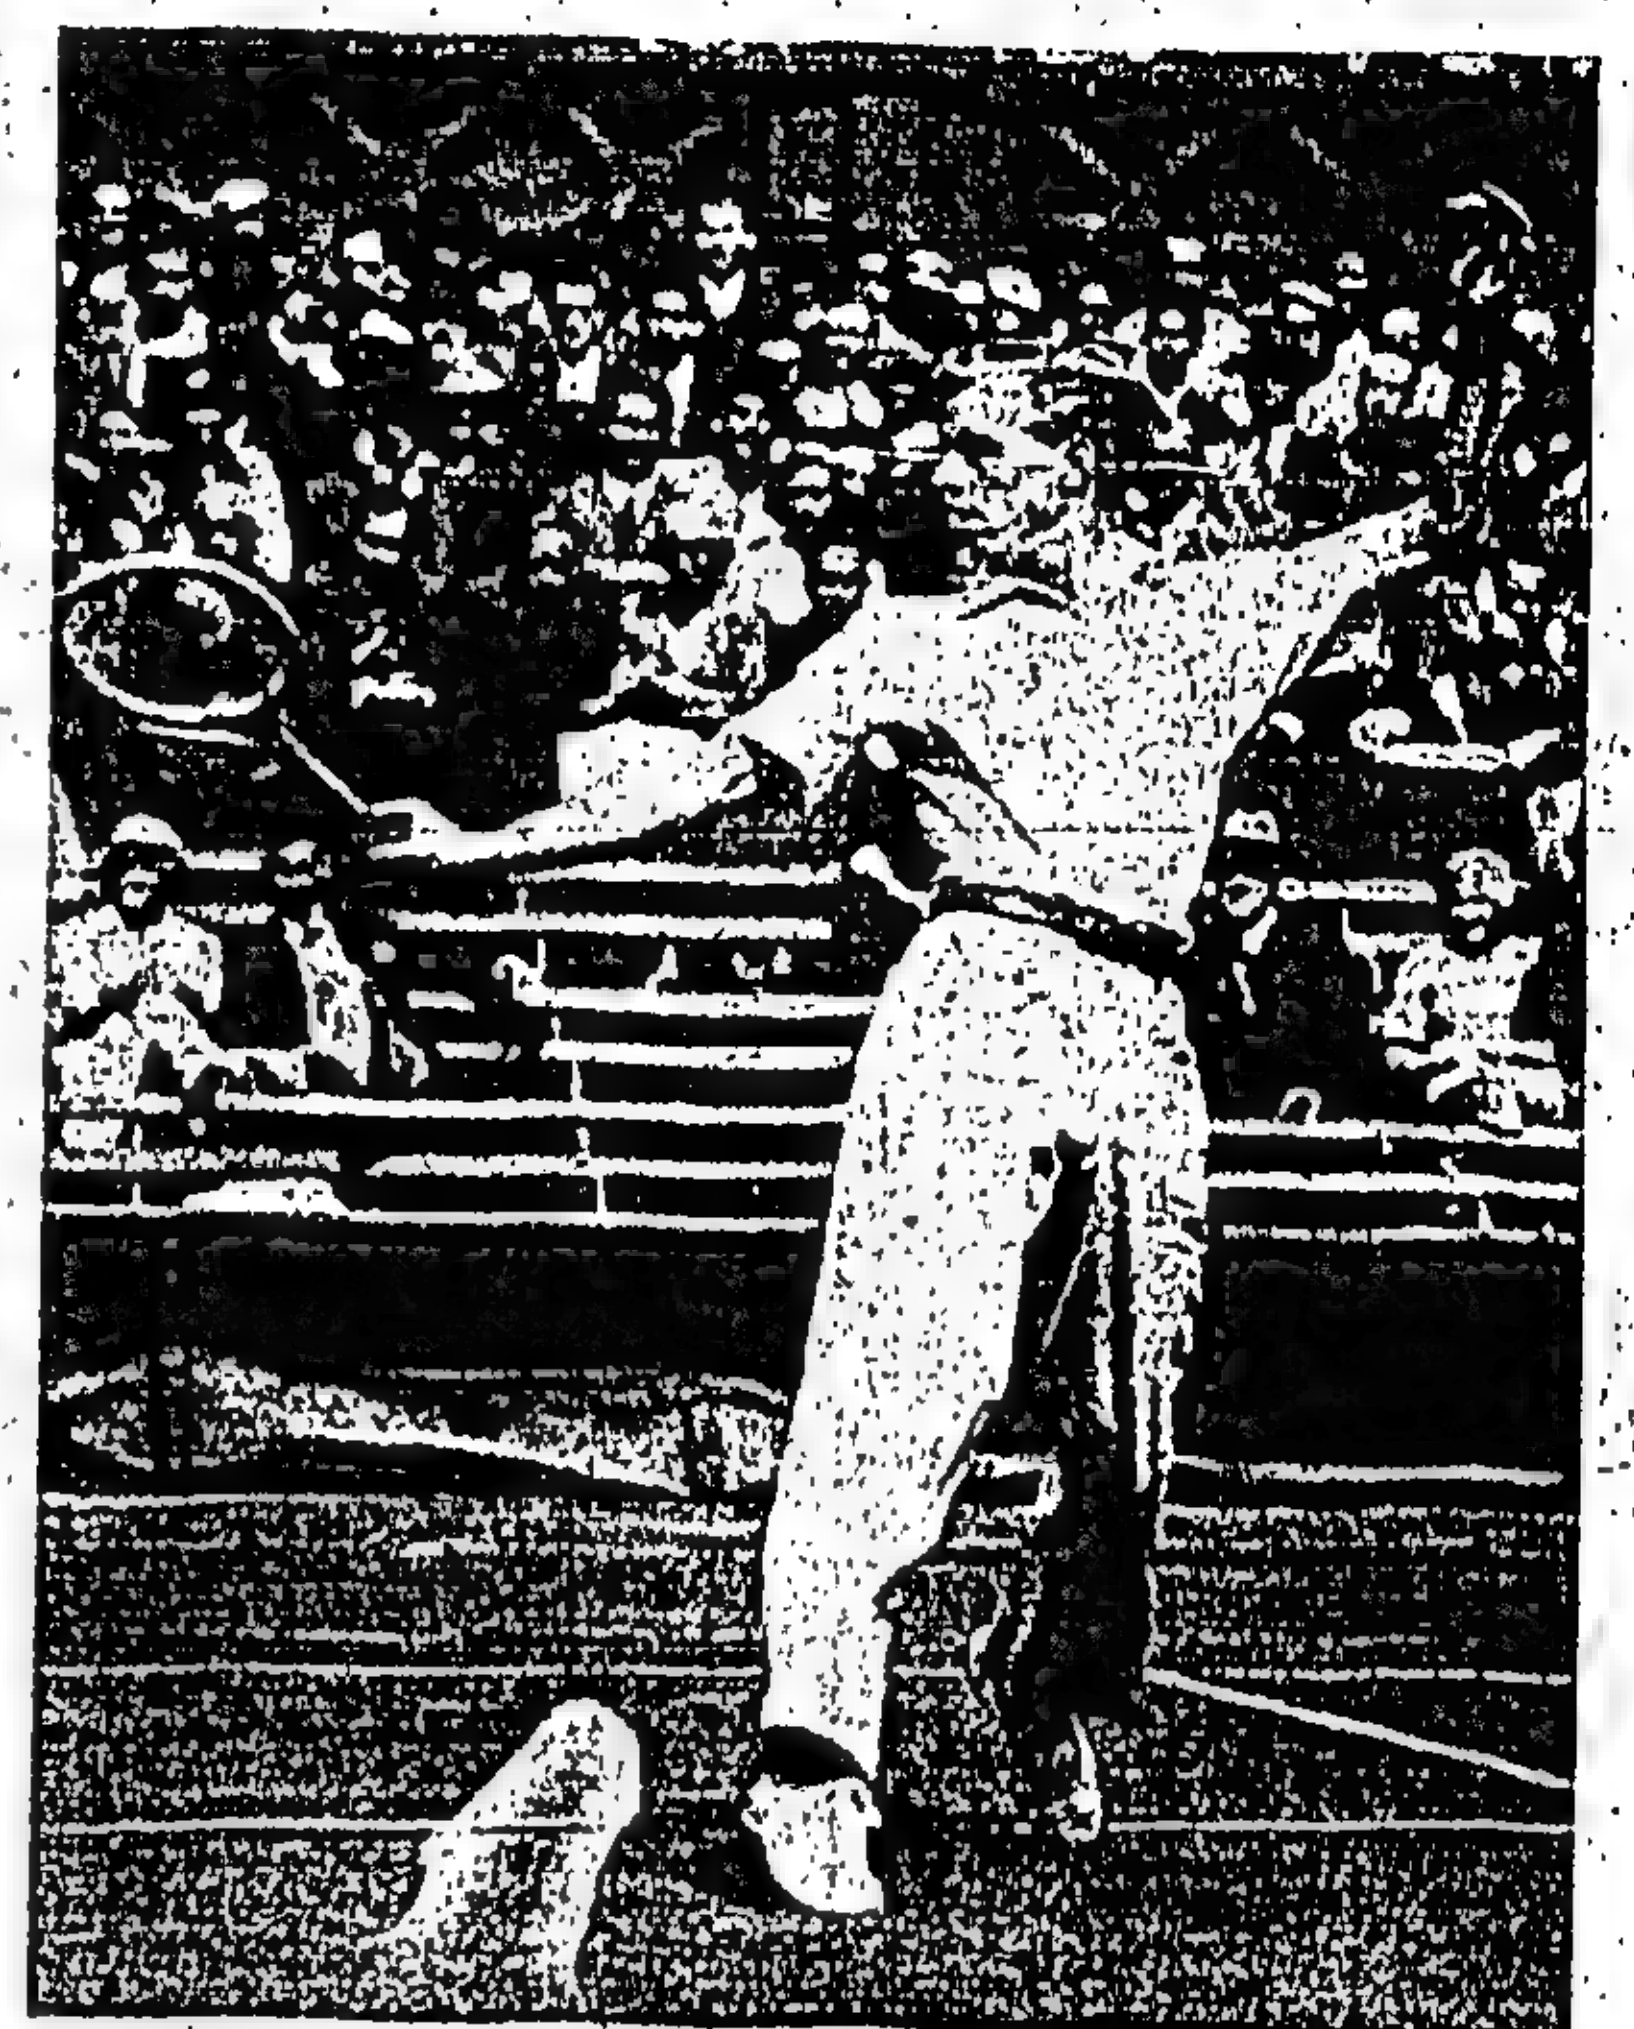

AT FOLKESTONE.

At Folkestone the Gentlemen were always on top, and finally won by three wickets.

The Players had first occupation of the wicket, but were skittled out for 186, Reed securing half the wickets for 73 runs.

The Gents responded with 258, "Tich" Freeman being the most successful trundler with 5 for 69. Geary played a brilliant innings when the players batted a second time, scoring 109 in the total of 280.

Set to score 212 to win, the Gentlemen obtained the runs after losing seven batsmen—Fauler.

Campbell's New Speed Bid

RIVALS MAY GO TO DAYTONA

Sir Malcolm Campbell has cabled to the Daytona, Florida, authorities his acceptance of an invitation to make an attempt there to break his world's land speed record of 272 m.p.h. set up on Daytona Beach last February. He will make his attack on his own record early next year with his famous car Blue Bird.

The car is far from being ready," said Sir Malcolm to a reporter, "but progress is being made and there should be no doubt about Blue Bird being ready in good time."

It is possible that he will have competitors next year. Daytona officials have invited French and Italian motor-racers to compete, and it is known that both France and Italy are keen to wrest the record from Britain. Italy realises the tremendous national prestige that goes with the holding of the record, and she is anxious to show that she can build a machine that will beat the world.

In Blue Bird, however, Sir Malcolm Campbell has a machine which he confidently expects to reach the great speed of 300 m.p.h. It is reported from Daytona that Mr. F. W. Dixon, the Middlesex racing motorist, is also expected to attempt to beat Sir Malcolm Campbell's record. Mr. Dixon recently bought the Silver Bullet, the car which Mr. Kaye Don took to Daytona.

China Leads For Shanghai Rotary Tennis Cup

BRILLIANT DOUBLES MATCH: GUY CHENG DEFEATED

America gave China a great fight in the doubles match in the Shanghai Rotary Club Tennis Cup Final last Sunday and the Chinese representatives only just managed to win after three strenuous sets, Khoo Hoo-hye and Gordon Lum defeating L. D. Carson and C. C. Squires 6-4, 8-6, 8-6. A fairly large crowd turned out to the Shanghai Tennis Club to witness the competition.

Lum and Khoo were an invincible pair and though Squires and Carson extended them in every set, they just lacked that extra finish which won the set. Lum's backhand shots and cross court drives put the Americans out of position while Khoo's general court-craft and steady drives to the baseline made the opposition falter and their returns were slightly erratic at times.

Carson proved more steady than Squires, returning even the hardest of the Chinese pair's drives, his not play at times approaching brilliance and his overhead work being specially good.

Squires showed good style to pair off with his stronger partner, but he faltered at a critical moment of the match and allowed the Chinese to win the first set.

STRENUOUS SET.

In the second set the Chinese brought out a series of long drives but Squires showed commendable steadiness and he returned the hardest shots. A number of rallies featured the play.

The American pair showed signs of taking a set and the score went to 6-6.

The Americans forced the pace, but they were unable to make any impression on the Chinese pair and the next game was fought out with great caution, the Chinese (Continued on Page 9.)

eventually taking the point. With the service Khoo was able to win the set and give the Chinese a two set lead.

The third set was again a long struggle with the two teams being extremely cautious; the rallies were long. Gordon-Lum's placing won a number of points for the Chinese but they were unable to get a sufficient lead on their opponents and Carson rose to the occasion by scoring magnificently from the net, smashing strongly.

The score was taken to 6-0 and then the Chinese once more broke through on the Americans' service and they were able to win 8-0.

THE SINGLES.

In the first singles played last Saturday, Carson of America beat Guy Cheng and Khoo Hoo-hye beat "Dud" Squires, so that at the close of the doubles, China was leading two matches to one with two more singles to be played.

U.S. TRACK STARS
AND MANILAMay Pay Visit
Next Month

Tokyo, Sept. 4.

John J. Magee, coach of the groups of American track and field athletes now in Japan, said today he had received and was considering favourable an invitation from the Philippine Amateur Athletic Federation to bring his 14 stars to Manila next month.

Magee said acceptance of the invitation depended upon the showing the athletes make against Japan's best in meets at Tokyo and Osaka, the latter being scheduled for Sept. 16-18. The decision will be made shortly afterwards, he said.

If the P. A. A. F. invitation is accepted the American athletes will sail for Manila about Oct. 11 upon the completion of the present programme in Japan.

The American stars include several world record holders, in the group being the great runners Ralph Metcalfe, sprinter, Glenn Cunningham, miler and Hornbosel, Walter Marty, of Fresno State college of California, holds the world high jump record.

COUNTY CRICKET

Thanks largely to a profit of £1,000 on the Australian match, the club's overdraft of more than £2,000 was wiped out by June.

Membership has been increased by 500, and gate receipts amounted to £7,000 at the end of July, compared with £5,300 in the whole of last season.

Gloucestershire receipts so far this season show an appreciable drop compared with 1933. They are several hundred pounds down, and the club is relying on good attendances at the Cheltenham Festival from August 15 to 21 to recoup their losses.

The six days' receipts for the Middlesex and Warwickshire games at Gloucester at the end of June produced only £200, compared with the visit of the Australians to Bristol, four years ago, when £2,700 was taken at the gates.

SOMERSET BETTER. Somerset may look forward to an improved balance-sheet at the end of the season, though gates at Taunton and Bath have been generally disappointing.

The chief source of income will be the share of the Test match receipts and the proceeds of the Australians' visit to Taunton, where the two-days' takings exceeded £1,000.

Civilian teams seem to be taking very little interest in the Mamak Tournament this year. Of the ten entries received to-date the Police, last year's champions and the Young Men's Sikh Association, a newly-formed Club, are the only elevens from the Civilian ranks. Other entries are R.A.S.C., Royal

H.K. CYCLING CLUB
ACTIVITIESCOMMITTEE ACKNOWLEDGES
LOCAL RECORDSNEW INDUCEMENT TO JUNIOR MEMBERS

At a recent general committee meeting of the Hongkong Cycling Club a considerable advance in the progress of both cycling in general and the Club in particular was reported. As a result, the Committee had a busy evening discussing and arranging such items as the commencement of the Winter Programme, time trials and records, additions and amendments to rules and internal re-organisation.

Two changes in the personnel of the General Committee were made. Mr. E. G. Tweedy took over the duties of Honorary Treasurer from Mr. J. W. L. Cole and Mr. L. A. Anning assumed the role of Honorary Secretary vice Mr. H. G. Crawford. Mr. E. Munns, as vice-captain, was also brought on the Committee. Mr. H. A. G. Keates was given the newly-created appointment of Honorary Press Secretary.

The Hon. Treasurer reported the Club to be in a sound position, and up to date no financial difficulties had presented themselves. The Captain, Mr. C. Read, reported the runs to be well-attended, and showing every sign of increasing popularity. As there was an increase in numbers on these runs, but those participating were attaining a very high standard of orderliness on the runs, and setting a fine example.

THE OPENING RUN.

The opening run of the Winter Programme will be carried out on October 21. Participants will meet at the Vehicular Ferry, Jordan Road, at 2.15 a.m., and proceed to Castle Peak Cafeteria.

It was decided to increase to four and a half hours the time allowed for the 50 miles time trial on November 4 over the Kowloon Circuit. A start will be made from Shamshuipo at 1 p.m. on this occasion, and refreshments will be provided by the Club at 35 miles. Entrance fees have been reduced to members $1.00, and non-members $1.50. Specially designed and printed certificates will be presented within three weeks from the date of the event.

An outstanding item of the evening was an amendment to the rule relating to Club Entrance Fees, which read as under:

"Members under 18 years of age will be required to pay a subscription of $1.00 per quarter only."

ALL THE RECORDS.

The Committee also discussed and investigated the time trials recently carried out with a view to passing them as Hongkong Cycling Club Records. Several doubtful points having been thoroughly investigated and cleared up, the following rides were passed as records:

Date	Distance	Rider	Time	Avg. m.p.h.
July 26	5 mls.	J.W.R. Cole	14.47	20.27
July 28	25 mls.	H.A.G. Keates	38.01	20.48

Aug. 22	5 mls.	J.W.R. Cole	14.55	20.27

PRESENT RECORDS.

Six distances, however, only have been attempted, and the following are the present Club records:

Sept. 5	5 mls.	H.A.G. Keates	15.40	21.75
Aug. 9	10 mls.	H.A.G. Keates	27.38	21.75
Aug. 9	15 mls.	H.A.G. Keates	43.34	19.82
July 28	25 mls.	H.A.G. Keates	58.01	20.61

Aug. 2	25 mls.	H.A.G. Keates	1.21.25	19.49

The meeting terminated with arrangements for a Club Monthly Magazine, and Mr. L. A. Anning was nominated as Editor. This booklet will deal (humorously in the main) with Club activities each month, and will be written entirely by the club members. Circulation will also be confined to members.

MID-WEEK OUTING

Captain Has Nasty
Fall

The Hongkong Wheelers made their initial outing with a circuit of the island yesterday afternoon. The party comprised both European and Chinese riders, and was under the leadership of Bieker, the former Cape Town racing cyclist, who has been appointed captain of the Wheelers. The conditions for cycling were somewhat unfavourable on account of the heat, a delayed start being made at 4 p.m.

The Wheelers reached Repulse Bay Road, having earned a well-deserved free wheel. Misfortune, however, befell the captain, who was leading the column on the near side. He was negotiating a left hand bend at speed, and unfortunately his machine skidded owing to the loose gravel on the road. He was thrown heavily against some projecting rocks, and sustained severe cuts and abrasions in the head, but his condition is satisfactory. The remainder of the party carried on to Deep Water Bay, where they enjoyed a welcome bath for an hour before returning to Victoria via Aberdeen.

The trip, though short, was most enjoyable, and it is proposed to organise a run on Sunday to Tai Po via Shatin, commencing at 9.30 a.m. from the vehicular ferry, Jordan Road, Kowloon. All cyclists are extended a cordial invitation to attend. Mr. B. Fuller, the popular President and Secretary of the Wheelers, will give full particulars on application to Wellington Barracks, Queen's Road.

Those not in possession of their own cycles, the Wheelers have made arrangements with Messrs.

NEW PROPOSALS

JAPAN AND NAVAL DISARMAMENT

Tokyo, Sept. 7.

When the Naval Conference meets in London next year, the Japanese delegates will table certain proposals which they hope will be acceptable to the Great Powers. A spokesman of the Japanese Foreign Office emphasised to-day "that the question of the termination of the Washington Treaty will not arise if the Great Powers accept Japan's naval proposals."

The spokesman did not indicate what these proposals were, but stated they would be presented in detail at the London conference. The Japanese delegates, he said, would have wide freedom of action, but denunciation of the Washington Treaty was certain to follow the complete rejection of Japan's proposals. Partial acceptance by the Powers would require further consideration by the Imperial Japanese Government.

These remarks are interpreted as indicating that Japan is willing to discuss the entire naval situation without arbitrarily demanding complete acceptance of her new scheme.

It is understood that Cabinet has approved of the entire programme. The Premier, (Admiral Okada), the Foreign Minister (Mr. Koki Hirota) and the Minister for the Navy (Admiral Osami) are optimistic that the proposals will prove acceptable and will result in genuine disarmament. As Admiral Okada previously pointed out, this is Japan's actual objective.—United Press.

Abolition Of Ratios.

Reuter says that the Japanese Cabinet unanimously approved the naval policy formulated by Prime Minister Okada, Admiral Asumi and Mr. Hirota.

It is understood Japan's proposals involve the abolition of the naval ratios and modification or replacement of the Washington naval treaty.

Admiral Okada told newspapermen that the nation should have full confidence in the Government regarding naval affairs.

BEAUTIFUL GRANDMOTHERS

Your skin can eat this exceedingly nourishing food.

£1,000 Guarantee.

Creme Tokalon is guaranteed to contain the highly nourishing food ingredients which are readily absorbed by the skin. It is undernourishment of the skin—and not age, as is generally believed—which causes wrinkles, faded complexion, sagging cheeks and which makes a woman look old. Apply Creme Tokalon Night Cream in the evening and Creme Tokalon Vanishing Cream in the morning. Women of 50 may now look 30 and obtain complexion of youth and beauty.

A BROKEN DOWN SYSTEM.
This is a condition (or disease) to which many names are given but few really understand. It is simply weakness—a break down as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same: the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirit and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now what alone is essential in all such cases is increased vitality—vigour, vital strength and energy to throw off these morbid feelings, and as this accords the day life may be more certainly secured by a course of THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY, THERAPION No. 3

than by any other known combination. So surely as it is taken in accordance with the printed directions will the shattered health be restored THE EXPIRING LAMP OF LIFE LIGHTED UP AFRESH and new vitality imparted in place of what had so lately seemed worn-out, used up and valueless. This preparation is suitable for all ages, constitutions and conditions, in either sex; and it is difficult to imagine a disease or derangement whose main feature is weakness, that will not be speedily and permanently overcome by this recuperative essence, which is destined to cast into oblivion everything that had preceded it for this wide-spread scourge of humanity. Never before in the low-priced field such costly car construction

ACTUAL UNRETouched PHOTOGRAPH OF LAFAYETTE 2-DOOR SEDAN

THIS big, new Lafayette, created by Nash, is built with a series of costly construction features never before used in a car in the low-priced field.

Every one of these proven features does something important for you. They bring you, in the Lafayette, the smooth, long life silence and riding comfort of expensive automobiles.

Back of the Lafayette is the experience gained by Nash in building a million fine cars. Come in and see the Lafayette today!

Lafayette "big car" features new in the low-priced field. Seven-bearing, extra-size crankshaft, fully counterbalanced complete forced-lubrication of engine with side-bored connecting rods; metered pressure-cooling of engine; Invar Struts in aluminum-alloy pistons; Nash production machining—perfected in 18 years of building fine cars; automatic and thermostat-control shock absorbers; steering road-shock eliminators; Seaman sound-proofed body.

THERE ARE SIX LAFAYETTE MODELS, SIX-CYLINDER, NASH-BUILT—On four of these models individually sprung front wheels are optional equipment without extra charge. Extra equipment at low cost.

CINEMA SCREENINGS

NOTES SUPPLIED BY THE THEATRES

The Screen Guild, an organization formed in Hollywood for the purpose of sponsoring the finer type of photo-plays, has issued its first certificate of excellence to "Man's Castle" the Columbia picture, having its final showings to-day at the Queen's Theatre. It was chosen from more than one hundred scenarios and manuscripts submitted to the Guild's judging committee by all the Hollywood studios. The celebrated Frank Borzage was assigned as director. Borzage is the director who won the prizes for having turned out the best picture of 1923 in "Seventh Heaven", and the best of 1932 in "Bad Girl". These prizes were awarded by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. M. C. Levee, president of the Screen Guild, was formerly president of the Academy and is still one of its active members. He is highly enthusiastic over "Man's Castle". "It is a beautiful story, and under Frank Borzage's masterly direction is bound to stand out among the year's production," he said. "Our Guild inspects a picture will assure the public that it is well worth seeing. We sought for months for the highest possible class of story to endorse, and at last we have found it." The story has several of the qualities of "Seventh Heaven". It has a splendidly romantic background, and deals with a boy and girl gripped by an overpowering love. Spencer Tracy and Loretta Young are the two players who play these important roles. A matchless supporting cast appear in featured parts. Glenda Farrell, Arthur Hohl, Walter Connolly, Marjorie Rambeau, and Dickie Moore.

"Gold Diggers of 1933"

A new type of film drama! That is what has been created by the Warner Brothers production of "Gold Diggers of 1933" which will be screened at the Oriental Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. This type of picture had its forerunner in "42nd Street" but "Gold Diggers" is said to entirely eclipse it in the sheer forces of its drama, in comedy situations, its catchy song hits and the novelty and beauty of its gigantic and spectacular dance ensembles. The production carries an all star cast which includes Warren William, Joan Blondell, Aline MacMahon, Ruby Keeler, Dick Powell, Guy Kibbee, Ned Sparks and Ginger Rogers. Two hundred chorus girls are a part of the elaborate, mobile sets. The brilliant new dance and song conceptions were created and staged by the famous musical comedy producer, Busby Berkeley. The music and lyrics are by the famous team of Harry Warren and Al Dubin, who wrote the song hits in "42nd Street."

"Little Miss Marker"

Revealing the softer side of a lot of otherwise hard Broadway characters, Damon Runyon's popular magazine story, "Little Miss Marker," directed for Paramount by Alexander Hall, is now at the King's Theatre. Adolphe Menjou, Dorothy Dell, Charles Bickford and five-year-old Shirley Temple—have the principal roles, while the supporting cast includes Lynne Overman and Jack Sheward. Broadway stage stars who make their Hollywood screen debut in this film, and Frank McGlynn Sr., Sam Hardy, Tammany Young, Warren Hymer and Crawford Kent. The screen play is credited to William R. Lupman, Sam Hellman and Gladys Lehman.

"Glamour"

The age-old problem of "the eternal triangle" is presented in a new light in "Glamour," the Universal drama which comes to the King's Theatre on Tuesday. Constance Cummings, Paul Lukas and Phillip Reed play the characters at three points of the love triangle, in Edna Ferber's story. In the picture Miss Cummings, the wife of Paul Lukas, is a theatrical star, and a new romance enters her life when Reed is engaged to her leading man. Several original songs are introduced by Reed in "Glamour", and there are also alluring dance specialties during the unfolding of the plot. The most rhythmic of these is the Rhumba Exotic, danced by Reed and Miss Cummings, to especially composed music. Put "Glamour" down on your list of the new pictures which you simply must not fail to see, and prepare to enjoy a sophisticated screenplay.

What is the USE of ADVERTISING

IF

the claims made are proved a fallacy? Would you buy that article a second time? While advertising is a powerful force in educating as to the uses, merits or money saving advantages of a product, the people are the judges when they make their first purchase. "Delivering the goods" is what they demand, and the scrap heap of failures is piled with goods that could not stand the test of public judgment. 'ASPRO' messages are carefully planned to prove what 'ASPRO' can do to alleviate pain and suffering, and the reason of its success throughout the civilised world is simple, because it fulfils all claims made for it. Its purity is its safety, and its quick action the healing service humanity appreciates. 'ASPRO' conforms to the standard of purity laid down by the British Pharmacopoeia (the guiding authority of the Medical Profession), and the 15 uses enumerated below make it an invaluable quick first-aid emergency in every home.

'ASPRO'

GIVES QUICK AND SAFE RESULTS

Great Relief After 14 Years' Suffering

2 Thomas St., Lewisham, N.S.W.

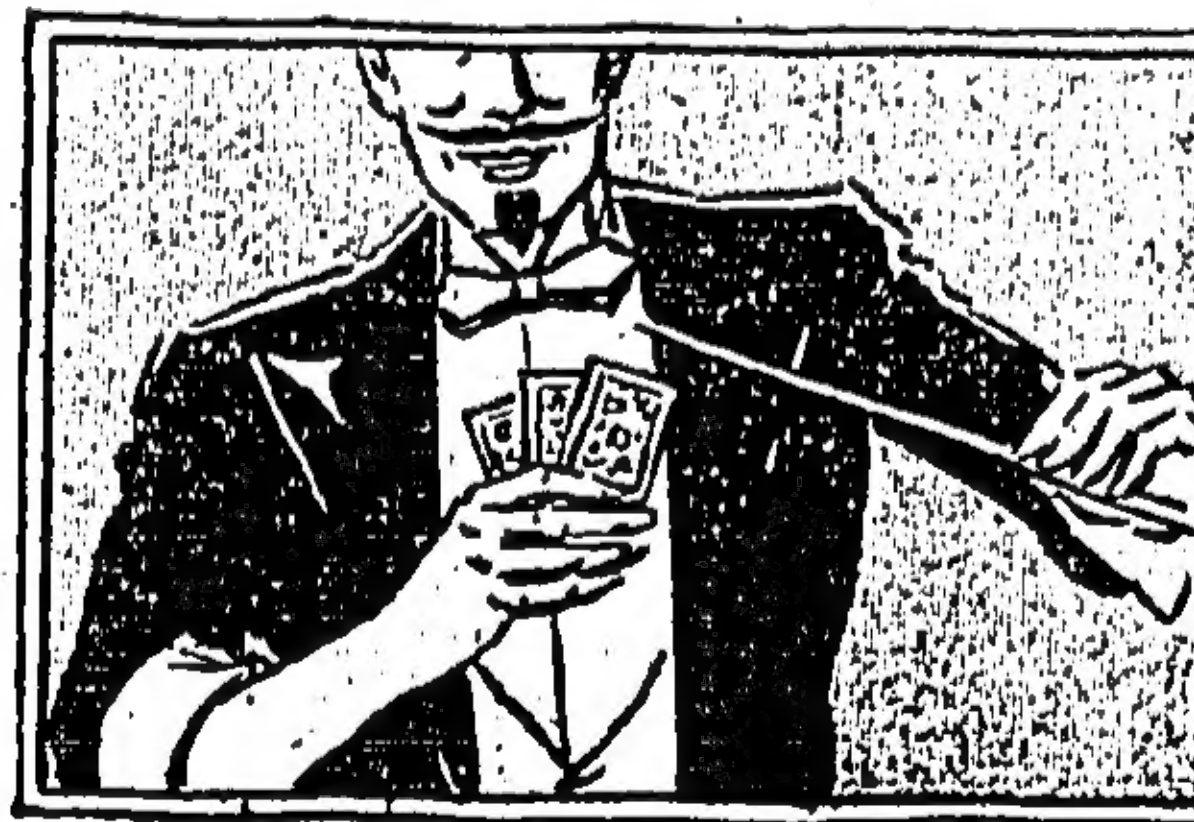

Dear Sirs,
28/2/33.
I have been suffering from Rheumatism and Rheumatoid Arthritis for 12 to 14 years. I have taken a course of your 'ASPRO' Tablets—three after each meal—and often, when in pain, have taken an extra dose before going to bed. I obtained very great relief from this treatment; in fact, I do not know how I could have continued to move about without 'ASPRO'. The pain has gradually improved, and now I find I need to take 'ASPRO' only occasionally. I can confidently recommend 'ASPRO' to all sufferers from rheumatism to all sufferers from rheumatism. (Sgd.) WHATEVER!

We live in an age when so many different foodstuffs (and real beer is a food) come under the magic wand of the scientist. There is synthetic this, and synthetic that, and even synthetic BEER!

In many cases, the explanation is in the desire to produce an imitation of a certain article at a price below that of the genuine product, or to produce in bulk with the minimum of effort.

A REALLY GOOD BEER MUST BE MADE ACCORDING TO TRADITION.

The ingredients must be the finest of their kind, and the brewing the work of experts. It is because of its genuine excellence that—

NEW SHIP ARRIVES.

N.Y.K. ENTERTAINS LOCAL SHIPPING FRATERNITY

Yesterday afternoon the Nippon Yusen Kaisha entertained numerous well-wishers for the success of the new motor ship Nagara Maru at her mooring in the stream. The ship was thrown open to inspection at 3.30 p.m. and launches took the visitors out to the craft.

There was much to see aboard the Nagara, particularly the grand scale on which accommodation for the crew and officers had been arranged. Contrary to the usual practice, in which the sailors and engine room crew are housed in the fore-cabin and poop, the new vessel accommodates her lower-deck crew amidships. The quarters provided are on a scale equalling the ordinary 2nd class passenger accommodation of most large liners.

Many new features, such as the ship's sliding hatch, have been incorporated in the design of the vessel, and it is certain that she will become an efficient unit of the N.Y.K.'s Orient-New York fleet.

BUSY DAYS FOR SOUTHAMPTON

MOST CROWDED PORT FOR YEARS

London, Sept. 7.

The Port of Southampton is in the midst of one of the most crowded periods it has experienced in the past two or three years and it is estimated that in the three days ending to-morrow the tonnage of shipping arriving and departing will total about 640,000.

The vessels being handled include twenty-seven liners. Four of the arrivals and five departures are of liners concluding or setting off on holiday cruises and eight of the ships leaving the port are taking returning holiday makers back to the United States and Canada.

Some quick "turns-round" are being made notably that of Empress of Britain which arrived last evening and leaves on Saturday after being refuelled, re-vicealued and cleaned up in thirty-six hours. The Andora Star which will have spent about the same time in port and the Strathaird and Esperanza Bay which arrive to-day, depart on cruises to-morrow.

In addition to the trans-oceanic services, the port traffic is exceptionally heavy at present with channel steamer passengers of whom an average of 3,000 pass through the port daily.—British Wireless.

MURDER WAVE

ANOTHER TRAGEDY LAST NIGHT

UNKNOWN MAN STABBED

Yet another murder occurred in Hongkong last night, the sixth to be recorded in less than three weeks. The victim in this case is an unknown man.

The body of the man was found at 8 o'clock last night at the junction of Hollywood Road and Tung Street, with a stab wound just under the heart. The wound had apparently been inflicted with a scissor blade.

Apparently earlier in the evening there had been a fight in an opium den at 207 Hollywood Road, in which the combatants made free use of porcelain pillows. It is believed that the murdered man was involved in the quarrel and that he was chased into the street and later murdered.

The body, which has not yet been identified, has been removed to the mortuary. No arrests have yet been made.

BRITISH STOCKS FIRM

GOVT. SECURITIES IN DEMAND

London, Sept. 7.

The feature of business on the London Stock Exchange, which was generally very restricted, was the continued investment demand for British Government securities, 3½ per cent. War Loan being unchanged at 105.1/16.

Three per cent. Funding Loan strengthened to a new high record of 99½. Consolidated 4 per cent. to 113.1/16 and 3 per cent. Local Loans to 92½.—British Wireless.

"BRITISH EMPIRE" DEFINED

Hongkong Ordinance To Be Amended

The Gazette contains the draft of an Ordinance to amend the Empire Preference Ordinance, 1932. It is explained that in a despatch dated June 2, 1933, the Secretary of State gave instructions that a uniform definition of the British Empire should be included in the tariff legislation of all Colonies and Protectorates granting Imperial Preference.

The purpose of the present amendment is to give effect to those instructions and to adopt the definition of "the British Empire" set out in the said despatch in place of that appearing in the principal Ordinance.

The revised definition is as follows:—"The British Empire" means the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Dominions, India, the territories administered by His Majesty's Government in the Dominions under Mandate or otherwise, the British Colonies and protected States, and the Mandated Territories of Tanganyika, the Cameroons under British Mandate and Togoland under British Mandate.

COLONY FINANCE FIGURES

RETURNS FOR FIRST HALF OF YEAR

Financial returns for the Colony for the first six months of the year have now been issued. These show that the credit balance on June 30 was $14,779,313, as compared with $16,020,076 at the end of May.

Revenue for the six months totalled $15,172,142, compared with $18,181,796 in the previous year. The estimated revenue for the whole year is $31,731,625.

On a year's estimate of $33,442,605, the expenditure for the six months was $14,216,454, compared with $15,180,395 for 1933.
